

The Lemon Tree, Open House and Jewish/Arab Coexistence in Israel

Sandy Tolan, Author of "The Lemon Tree"

Sunday May 18th - 7:00 pm

Jewish Reconstructionist Congregation

303 Dodge Avenue, Evanston

(847) 328-7678

Join JRC as we welcome Sandy Tolan for a discussion of The Lemon Tree, his award winning look at two families, one Jewish and one Arab, and what their relationship teaches us about coexistence between Jews and Arabs in Israel. Mr. Tolan will also enter into a dialogue with Rabbi Brant Rosen about social justice efforts in Israel, Palestine and the United States.

Participants will watch a video report from OPEN HOUSE, a unique project that came out of the history described in The Lemon Tree. OPEN HOUSE sponsors a pre-school for underserved Arab-Israeli children in the town of Ramle and the organization facilitates coexistence and conflict resolution experiences for Jewish and Arab teens.

For more information about this event, please contact Dina April,
JRC Director of Programming and Adult Education at 847-328-7678 or dapril@jrc-evanston.org.